Tempe is proud of the record made by her sons in the great World war now ended.

Nothing that can be said or written can ever equal the deeds of prowess and valor which has made the world a good place to live in.

The deeds which have brought about so grand a finale, are an incentive to greater attainments in the time of peaceful reconstruction now beginning. All of our citizens welcome you to our hearts and homes and a share in everything that we have and are.

The Welcome That We Extend to Our Returning Heroes can only be appreciated through the years to come—for it is from the deeper heart emotions that we wish you welcome home.
